

101, QUEEN VICTORIA STREET,
LONDON, E.C

Feb 14, 82

My dear Friend,

I have your letter, and rejoice beyond measure and know of God's goodness to you and His blessing upon the people through you. To Him be glory. Go on. Be not dismayed by anything. Be not over anxious. Do not listen to Satan if he should say that by being out and out and going thoroughly for God alone, you end on get the work. It is a lie. Go on and trust in the Lord and you shall not be confounded but shall have abundant fruit and a glorious crown.

The General is coming to London today and I will send to him your letter and tell you in my next what he says. I wish we could help you, at once wish send able officers.

We should like to see the newspaper articles upon the Army. Please cut them out and write on them the name and date of the paper and post them to us. We have seen several extracts this week from Norway – rather friendly to the Army.

They had a good time at Bristol. Wonderful the crowds even . When the General arrived at the station about fifty thousand people met him. I did not go. I have been to Paris again this week. My sister there much needs help. – Pray for her. Shall I order her paper to be sent? – Do you read French?

Mrs Booth is away at Dorquay – I will ask her about help in the house. I am sorry you have not a fellow worker – a Swede but perhaps it would not be good for you yet. The Lord wishes you to get strong and have your own way, then He will give you one. Trust Him. Do only what you can. Do not kill yourself. You must live for the sake of Sweden.

I am better than I was. I have good help in my office now, and much work I can leave.

Pray for us all. We have need of patience and wisdom.
So of the Holy Ghost.

I will write again soon.

Yours affectionately in the King and Lord

W. Bramwell Booth

101, QUEEN VICTORIA STREET,
LONDON, E.C.

Feb 14. 82.

My dear Friend, I have your letter, and rejoice beyond measure to know of God's goodness to you and His blessing upon the people through you. To Him be glory. Go on Be not dismayed by anything. Be not over cautious. Do not listen to Satan if he should say that by being out and out + going thoroughly for God alone, you endanger the work. It is a lie. Go on + trust in the Lord and you shall not be confounded but shall have abundant fruit and a glorious crown.

The General is coming to London today + I will read to him your letter + tell you in my next what he says. I wish we could help you, at once with suitable offers.

We should like to see the newspaper articles upon the Army. Please cut them out + write on them the name + date of the paper + post them to us. We have seen several extracts this week from Norway - rather friendly to the Army they had a good time at Brestle. Wonderful the crowds were very great when the General arrived at the station about fifty thousand people met him. I did not go. I have been to Paris again this week. My sister then much needs help. Pray for her. Shall I order her paper to be sent - Do you read French? Mr. Booth is away at Torquay - I will ask her about help in the house when I see her.

I am sorry you have not a fellow worker - a Swedish perhaps it wd not be good for you yet. The Lord wishes you to get strong + have your own way. When He will give you strength trust Him. Do only what you can. Do not kill yourself. You must live for the sake of Sa. I am I was. I have good help in my office now, and much work I can leave.

Pray for us all we have need of patience + wisdom of the Holy Ghost.

I will write again soon.

Yours affectionately
W. Praywell Booth

101, QUEEN VICTORIA STREET,
LONDON, E.C.

[Faint, mostly illegible handwriting on the reverse side of the letter, with a checkmark in the top right corner.]