Dear Miss Ouchterlony,

I am very busy and can only send a line to say I sympathise and rejoice with you at the same time.

The Lord had I doubt not, answered your prayers. Thanks be unto God and our Lord Jesus Christ who knoweth our frame and pitys his children.

I see the Lord is putting you in the fires – remember those favourite texts Job 23:8, 9 and 10. God your Father knows well what He is doing. Trust Him. Trust Him. Trust Him. Trust Him. I am bound to say I find trouble is better for the soul than joy. Tears better than laughter. The voice of mourning better than song – why? Because God's magic grace and love turns trouble into joy – an yet gets the lesson – draws the honey out of the bitter and so makes sweet = Hallelujah

Psalm 23

I Cor 15: 51 to 58

Jesus is a keeper

Yours in Him
