

March 15. 1881

My dear friend,

I have been very poorly – in fact quite ill – and away from home, or I would have written sooner. I thank God I am better and shall be better and hope to return to my post tomorrow.

I have nothing special to write about, but this and the Love of God. That is unchanging and fathomless. To me, it surpasses all my thoughts and expectations. I enclose a copy of the telegram from Paris about the first meeting there, and an extract from the letter of a staff officer who is there – you will see what is doing by the Lord's goodness there.

When the Lord speaks to you listen and obey and love Him because He condescends to give you the inward voice.

I will write again shortly.

Many affectionate greetings
in the Lord of the Glory

W. Bramwell Booth

W.B.B. Feb 15. 1881

My dear friend I have been very poorly - in fact quite ill - and away from home, or I wd have written sooner. Thank God I am better and shall be better and hope to return to my post tomorrow.

I have nothing special to write about, but this the Love of God. That is unchanging & fashionless. To me, it surpasses all my thoughts or expectations. I enclose a copy of the Telegram from Paris about the first meeting there, and an extract from the letter of a Staff Officer who is there - you will see what is done by the Lord's goodness there.

When the Lord speaks to you listen & obey & love Him because He condescends to give you the inward voice. I will write again shortly with very affectionate regards
 in the Lord of Glory
M. Bramwell Root.